

CONFERENCE REPORT ON H.R. 4546,
BOB STUMP NATIONAL DEFENSE AUTHORIZATION
ACT FOR FISCAL YEAR 2003

Tuesday, November 12, 2002

107th Congress, 2nd Session

148 Cong Rec H 8092

“Sense of Congress on prohibition of use of funds for International Criminal Court

The House bill contained a provision (sec. 1034) that would prohibit the use of funds appropriated pursuant to authorizations of appropriations in this Act for any assistance to, cooperation with, or support for the International Criminal Court.

The Senate amendment contained no similar provision.

The House recesses.

The conferees note that, subsequent to passage of the House bill, the President signed legislation making supplemental appropriations for fiscal year 2002 (Public Law 107-206). That legislation contained the American Servicemembers' Protection Act of 2002, which protects United States military personnel and other elected and appointed officials of the United States Government against criminal prosecution by the International Criminal Court. Accordingly, the House provision is no longer necessary.”
