

GUEST LIST

Moderator: TBD

N.B.: Guests designated by an asterisk (*) have not yet confirmed

Opening Remarks: 10:30 a.m.-10:45

I. “The Historic, Legal, and Political Development of the International Criminal Court: Precedent, Norms, and Civil Society”: 10:45 a.m.-12:15 p.m.

- Leila Sadat, Professor of Law, Washington University in St. Louis
Historical Precedent for the ICC: From the Hague to Rome and Back Again
- Roy Lee, Columbia Adjunct Professor of Law; Former Chief of the Codification Division, Office of Legal Affairs, United Nations
The Drafting the Rome Statute: Issues and Negotiations
- William Pace, Convenor for the CICC
The Historic Role of Civil Society in the Drafting Process
- Valentin Zellweger, Counselor of Legal Affairs, Permanent UN Mission of Switzerland
Political Negotiations: from Drafting to the Preparatory Commission

Lunch Break: 12:15-1:00 p.m.

II. “The United States and the ICC: Reconcilable Differences?”: 1:00-2:30

- * Ambassador Richard Prosper, Ambassador-at-Large for War Crimes Issues
Understanding US Concerns: from the ICC to Justice in Iraq
- John Washburn, Convenor for AMICC
Anti-ICC Legislation: the American Servicemembers’ Protection Act
- Richard Dicker
Implications for International Justice: Security Council Resolution 1422, Bilateral Agreements, and Justice in Iraq

III. “The Implications of the ICC in the 21st Century”: 2:45-4:15

- Jeffrey Huffines, leader of the Faith-based caucus for CICC and AMICC
Moral and Ethical Dimensions of the ICC
- Carla Ferstman, REDRESS
The Implications of the ICC for Victim’s Rights
- Fiona McKay, Legal Counsel, Lawyers Committee for Human Rights
A Closer Step toward Universal Jurisdiction
- Sam Muller, Deputy Director of Common Services Division
The Birth of the ICC: Establishing an Effective Court

Concluding thoughts: 4:15-4:30