The Congo: Human Rights Abuses and The International Criminal Court

Please join us for a discussion regarding the current situation in Democratic Republic of the Congo, on Thursday, February 12, 2004, from 6:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m., at 607 North Vermont Avenue, Hollywood, California.

Speakers include: Jules Boyele, President of the Congolese Community of Southern California; Diana Munongo, also of the Congolese Community of Southern California; Paul Hoffman, chair of the International Executive Committee of Amnesty International; Andrea Capachietti, of Physicians for Human Rights; and moderator Scott Gordon, commissioner of the Los Angeles Superior Court, professor of law, and former prosecutor for the International Criminal Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia.

A donation of $5 for the Congolese Community of Southern California is requested, but not required.
