

THE INDEPENDENT STUDENT COALITION FOR THE INTERNATIONAL CRIMINAL COURT

presents

From Nuremberg to Rome

A Panel Featuring Former Nuremberg Prosecutors and the Leading Experts on the International Criminal Court

Friday, April 2, 2004

6:00 p.m. – 7:30 p.m.

2004 Spring Conference
International Law Students Association
Wyndham Washington Hotel
1400 M Street, N.W., Washington, DC

Featured Speakers: Former Nuremberg Prosecutors Henry King and Benjamin B. Ferencz

Henry T. King, Jr. U.S.
Director, Canada-U.S. Law
Institute. Professor of Law,
Case Western Reserve
University School of Law.

Benjamin B. Ferencz,
Adjunct Professor of Law,
Pace Law School. Author, A Common Sense Guide to World Peace.

International Criminal Court Experts

Michael P. Scharf, Professor of Law and Director, Frederick K. Cox International Law Center, Case Western Reserve University School of Law.

Leila Nadya Sadat, Professor of Law, Washington University in St. Louis School of Law.

David J. Scheffer, Visiting Professor of Law, Georgetown University Law Center. Formerly U.S. Ambassador-at-Large for War Crimes Issues

William Schabas, Chair, Department of Human Rights, and Director, Irish Centre for Human Rights, National University of Ireland, Galway. Member, Truth and Reconciliation Commission for Sierra Leone.

M. Cherif Bassiouni, Professor of Law and President, International Human Rights Law Institute, DePaul University College of Law. Chairman, Drafting Committee of the Rome Diplomatic Conference to Establish the ICC.

Co-sponsored by the International Law Students Association and the

International Human Rights Law Institute

For more information, contact ILSA at (312) 362-5025 or ILSA@ILSA.ORG