

QUNO Briefing Paper

Terrorism: a global problem requiring global solutions

March 2002

“The threat of terrorism will be reduced only through a global approach with all nations committed to working together to:

...

- Ratify and support the implementation of the International Criminal Court”....

...

Actions

- “Support the establishment and ratification of the International Criminal Court as the long-term international legal responses to terrorism. (www.iccnw.org)”