

Thank you . . .

. . for contacting me regarding your strong support for the International Criminal Court. I appreciate you taking the time to write me on this important issue.

I share your view that the United States needs to be part of the process of shaping this emerging institution. It is important to achieve accountability and justice for crimes against humanity. This is one of the core issues of the Rome Treaty. We should not recognize governments that allow human rights violations against women and girls. Please know that I will continue to monitor this situation closely and will continue to fight for human rights in our country and around the world.

Thank you again for sharing your views with me. Please do not hesitate to contact me if I can ever be of assistance in the future.

Sincerely,
Debbie Stabenow
United States Senator
